

Hand Written Guest Book Comment #14

To Michael,

1/00 thought of everything! When we walked through the door we were home. The villa has every comfort and is smartly decorated (I took pictures of the house to help me decorate my new apt.)

The people of Gioia Tauro — are the warmest on Earth! One day we asked for directions and when the gentleman realized we didn't speak Italian — he got in his car and drove us to our destination. There are more stories like that.

Thank you for all your information — as well — @ it help us make the most of each day.
