6/24/05. Michael,

The past four weeks have ^{been} a dream come true for Perry and I — to spend time in a small town in Italy where we had to use our limited Italian language — we have improved our Italian.

The Villa was indeed our home away from home. It is beautiful with all the conveniences.

But most of all we enjoyed the people of Nivio Truso — very friendly and helpful. The owners of the shops — the cut and paper shop near the Duomo, the wine shop, the restaurant on Via Roma at the end of Via Messina — all very gracious.

The Saffioti family, all great Nivio Truso area ambassadors. They welcomed us into their home and we shared our lives with each other. Their kids — great!

Citta Nova (a look a Stromboli at dusk), Taormina,
One disappointment - too misty to see Mt. Etna.

Went to Reggio Calabria but it's closed Monday until 19.00. The Museo Archeologia in Chiuro tutt'Landi.

Anthony's Restaurant on Via Garibaldi is fantastic try it.

Returned to R-C Wednesday - beautiful Seagrass and saw the bronzes at the museo. As it turned out the museo was open but only in the afternoon - the man at the information booth at R-C RR Station was wrong.

Returned the Sicily Friday - a clear day - saw Mt. Etna.

Michael, Penny & I Thank you for a wonderful stay in Calabria - Gioia Tauro.

We are ending our stay here with a small gathering this evening - vino & antipasti for appreciation for some of the people who made our stay so valuable.
